

Tamkang University Implementation Guidelines for Graduate Students' Academic Research Ethics Education Courses

Secretariat Regulation No. 1110000043 (11/11/2022)

Article 1

In order to elevate the disposition of graduate students toward research ethics and provide them with the necessary and proper ethical cognition and attitude for engaging in academic research, the course of "Academic Research Ethics Education" (hereafter abbreviated this course) has been established as implementation guidelines.

Article 2

From the 2017 academic year, students entering the master's class, master's in-service class, doctoral class, must access the Taiwan Academic Ethics Education Resource Center website and individually view and study this course; and they must pass the online test and standard of this course. After obtaining a certificate of proof of taking this course, and after presenting it to the administrative personnel of the college, department, graduate institute or degree program for inspection, students can then apply for the degree examination.

Article 3

Students that belong to a college, department, graduate institute, or degree program where there is a compulsory related course offered about academic research ethics can be exempted from the above requirement.

Article 4

If students have already taken a course related to "Academic Research Ethics Education" of 6 hours, they can present proof of attendance during the semester they enter the school and then apply to the college, department, graduate institute, or degree program they belong to for exemption. After being approved, they are exempt from taking the course.

Article 5

These guidelines after being passed by the Academic Affairs Committee and reported to the university's president for ratification will upon the day of publication take effect; any amendments to these guidelines will follow the same procedure.
