V. Review Committee Meeting Schedule

A. The university-level review committee conducts meetings within one week after the following: the selection of master and doctoral programs, the recommendation of the Star Plan in Taiwan’s College Entrance System, individual applications, and the release of the university entrance scores (within 3 days after the recommendation of the Star Plan). The college-level review committee meetings are held in advance accordingly and the review results will be sent to the Guidance Section for consolidation so the convening of the university-level review committee may be facilitated.

- B. The list of recipients approved by the university-level review committee throughout the four meetings will be approved by the Student Scholarship Committee meeting held during the first semester of each academic year, and a full amount of scholarship will be awarded once.

VI. Disqualification and Disgorgement Method

- A. Recipients must first sign the affidavit before receiving the scholarship. The signed affidavit will be kept with the Guidance Section.
- B. Disqualification:
The replacement within the fixed quota will be in the order of the waiting list.
- C. Disgorgement:
When processing the application form for leave and withdrawal, the sponsor of the scholarship of the Guidance Section should check whether the student is a recipient of the Chang Yeo Lan Scholarship. Please make remarks of awards received in the "Study Award Subsidy" section of the application form, and create an income deposit form so the student may return the full amount of the scholarship at the Cashier's Section. After obtaining the payment voucher, students may go to the Office of Finance and other units to handle follow-up matters.
- D. All departments are responsible for matters related to the notification of scholarship disgorgement of domestic students; Office of International Affairs is responsible for that of international students, with assistance from each department.

VII. Matters not covered within the assessment guidelines are handled with the resolutions of the "Chang Yeo Lan Scholarship" university review committee meeting.
