

Tsuda University: Empowering Women for Global Leadership

Yuko Takahashi
President, Tsuda University

Tsuda University

College of Global Mathematical Data Science (Tentative)

New Building No. 2, where students of the College of Global Mathematical Data Science learn.

The concept of the college being established

Women who, with a foundation in mathematics, information science, and data science, transforms society

Women researchers and engineers making an impact in mathematical and information sciences

Women teachers mathematics and information subjects in middle and high schools

Talent developed by this college

High English Proficiency

Ability to understand mathematics

Cutting-edge IT knowledge

Ability to use data science effectively

- A women's university with an 80-year history of science department establishment
- A university with a strong track record of producing women engineers and educators in science who thrive in society.

The philosophy of the founder, Umeko Tsuda